Amateur Status Equestrian Canada, General Regulations, Chapter 9, Article A902

1. All adults competing in EC amateur classes must possess a current amateur card. Competitors in FEI-sanctioned competitions must comply with the FEI definition of amateur.
2. A person competing in EC amateur classes must hold a valid EC Sport Licence indicating amateur status and adhere to the guidelines as indicated in the discipline/breed sport rules. Riders competing in Amateur classes on a Temporary Sport Licence must have a signed Amateur Affidavit on file with the competition Secretary.
3. Applicable to CET only: Product endorsement by an EC amateur must not be contrary to the terms of the EC Athlete Agreement.
4. Applicable to CET only: An EC amateur may not enter into any form of sponsorship agreement that is contrary to the terms of the EC Athlete Agreement.
5. Persons who possess a current and valid amateur card from their breed affiliate organization are eligible to compete in EC amateur classes within the divisions for that breed.
6. USEF members who are eligible to compete as amateurs are eligible to compete in EC amateur classes, except in CET and EC amateur medal classes when they must also pay the fee for a valid Sport Licence and be members of the CET as required by the class specifications. Proof of amateur status must be submitted with entries to EC sanctioned competitions.
7. If the status of an EC certified amateur is challenged, such challenge is subject to EC rules regarding official complaints. See Appendix A-4 EC Dispute Resolution Policy - Complaints.
8. See Article A1301.5 regarding remuneration of officials and Section F, which forbids the offering of prize money in equitation, horsemanship and showmanship classes.
